

At the September 3, 2020 BFA General Assembly meeting members voted to suspend the Standing Rules and with one abstention a statement made by the Center for Native & Indigenous Studies (CNAIS) in response to comments made by President Mark Kennedy at Faculty Council meeting. Those comments were published in the September 3, 2020 CU Connections online newsletter.

Please see the attached document.

Introduced to BFA General Assembly September 3, 2020
The motion carried with 50 votes in favor and 3 abstentions, September 3, 2020

