Religious Observance

Campania's religious observance policy allows students to make effective arrangements and fulfill their obligations, where necessary, to observe their religious practices, activities, and observances. See the Campania's religious observance policy for full details.

Classroom Behavior

Students and faculty each have a responsibility for maintaining an academic learning environment. The highest academic behavioral standards must be expected of all. Professional conduct and especially in an individual and academic setting, the difference of race, color, ethnicity, religion, creed, disability, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and gender expression, age, disability, and nationality. Classrooms are identified by the student's legal name. I will gladly help you add or change your name on your name tag. Please advise me if you have any concerns about your name. I will make a name change if necessary. From the information, we have received, your behavior and the student's conduct.

Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination, Harassment, and/or Related Retaliation

The University of Central Florida (UCF) is committed to maintaining an academic learning, teaching, and living environment. UCF will not tolerate any form of sexual misconduct, discrimination, harassment, or retaliation against any member of the UCF community. Sexual Misconduct Policy prohibits sexual harassment, sexual violence, intimate partner violence (including domestic violence), stalking, and sexual assault. UCF's Discrimination and Harassment Policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and retaliation based on race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and marital status. Individual students who believe they have been subjected to sexual misconduct or discrimination should contact the
