TA and Recitations

TAs will hold weekly recitations that will help you to master the course material. Recitations start in the second week. Our TAs are Jim Flynn (James.Flynn@colorado.edu), Chad Brown (Chad.Brown@colorado.edu), and Joongsan Hwang (Joongsan.Hwang@colorado.edu). Please check your enrollment records to establish the day and time of your session. The following tables list all the recitations with times and locations.

accommodations based on documented disabilities in the academic environment. Information on requesting accommodations is located on the Disability Services website. Contact Disability Services at 303-492-8671 or dsinfo@colorado.edu for further assistance. If you have a temporary medical condition or injury, see Temporary Medical Conditions under the Students tab on the Disability Services website.

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. To ensure this in this class, a student needs to let me know by the end of the second week of class in case there are such conflicts, and we will find a good solution.

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status, political affiliation or political philosophy. For more information, see the policies on classroom behavior and the Student Code of Conduct.
